

DON'T GO TO THIS SHOW

© The Leftovers Collective

An exploration of profanity

THRESHOLD	2 Performers actively dissuade people not to go in. DON'T GO TO THIS SHOW They function as FOH - controlling numbers and on exit passing out post show pamphlet	Ms Guffrie Mr. Kemp
------------------	---	--------------------------------

Artwork Number	Title	Concept	Performer
1	Dunce	Punishment - a dunce sits in a corner writing lines. Over the course of the 6hrs the pages filled up are stuck up for all to see. Potentially we can invite audience to help the performer write. I will not swear	Ms Scoble
2	Jar	Our swearing worth Audience asked to contemplate a large swear jar overfilling with money.	Audience
3	Baby	A young mother a baby wrapped in swaddling clothes. When one looks at the baby you see it's a fresh cow's tongue Inviting ideas of protecting innocence	Ms MsCowage
4	Video	How young people feel about swearing, euphemism, slur, meaning and punishment	Various kids

5	Class	Audience are invited to a grammar class where a teacher goes through rules of grammar. If the 'students' misbehave they are symbolically caned.	Ms Kershaw
6	Soap	Punishment - We see a student washing their mouth with soap. He has read aloud from Twelfth Night where the servant Malvolio examines a love letter written, so he's been told, by his lady. Malvolio in the story he examines the handwriting and exclaims... "By my life, this is my lady's hand these be her very C's, her U's and her T's and thus makes she her great P's. It is, in contempt of question, her hand." "and her T's" in performance comes out "N her T's," Spelling out CUNT—and it is with her cunt that Malvolio's lady makes her great P's.	Mr. Fries
7	Sound	Sound work 1 Dual channel of swearing and body parts Sound work 2 Shakespeare euphemism and insults.	Ms Clair Mr. Fries
8	Ink	Can FUCK be beautiful and not derogatory? Temporary airbrush tattoo of the word Fuck	Mr Usser